The citizens of Millersburg have an artistic treat in store in Miss Margaret Ingels costume recital Tuesday night at the opera house. Miss Ingels' rare talent as a reader, combined with genuine historic ability and pretty costumes insures those who attend a pleasant evening. Her rendition of "Madge Brierly" is alone worth the price of admission. Millersburg should compliment her with a handsome audience.

A New Portrait.

PARIS, KY., January 12, 1897.

I AM introducing a new portrait made by a new process. It is finer in finish than a large photograph made from life, which could not be produced for less than ten dollars; is beautifully colored in water colors and will never fade. I propose to make just fifty of these pictures, and to introduce them will make the following offer until Feb. 15th 1897:

I will make half dozen of my best cabinets and one (size 16x20 inches) above described portraits, with mat, complete, for $6. You are not compelled to buy frame from me, but I can sell you frames cheaper than anybody, quality considered. Call and see these portraits. Respectfully,

L. GRINNAN, Photographer.
